

Women still hoping

Volleyball squad is third

Florida State placed third in the Senior College Division of the Women's Jr.-Sr. State Volleyball Championships held November 17-18 at Florida Southern College. A total of 22 teams participated from all over the state.

Flagler College took first place in the senior division with Rollins College coming in second. Florida State dropped both its games to Flagler 10-15, 12-15. They defeated Florida Tech and Jacksonville University in the first rounds. Miami-Dade South won the Jr. College division.

Florida State still hopes to qualify for a berth in the Region III Volleyball Tournament to be held at Auburn January 12-13. The top two teams in each of the four states of Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and Florida automatically qualify with seven other teams picked at large. Florida has the strongest state volleyball program of the four states.

Roundball anyone?

All women interested in trying out for the intercollegiate basketball team are invited to attend an organizational meeting on Tuesday, November 28 at 7:30 p.m. in Room 304, Montgomery Gym.